ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On November 20, 2015, the Court granted attorney Mandel I. Allweil's motion to withdraw as counsel of record in this putative class action, which left the putative class without counsel. The Court informed Mr. Hare, the named plaintiff, that he cannot proceed pro se on behalf of a putative class action "[b]ecause, by definition, pro se means to appear on one's own behalf, a person may not appear pro se on another person's behalf in the other's cause of action." Cavanaugh ex rel. Cavanaugh v. Cardinal Local Sch. Dist., 409 F.3d 753, 755 (6th Cir. 2005), abrogated on other grounds by Winkelman ex rel. Winkelman v. Parma City. Sch. Dist., 550 U.S. 516, 127 (2007); see also 28 U.S.C. § 1654 ("In all courts of the United States the parties may plead and conduct their own cases personally or by counsel as, by the rules of such courts, respectively, are permitted to manage and conduct causes therein.") (emphasis added).

In the order granting attorney Mandel I. Allweil's motion to withdraw as counsel of record for the plaintiff, the Court informed Mr. Hare that he must either file an amended complaint, which deleted the class references and proceed on his own behalf, or find suitable counsel to represent him and the putative class in this case. The Court allowed Mr. Hare thirty days to make the election. The Court further informed Mr. Hare that if he declined to make a decision by December 21, 2015, the case would be dismissed without prejudice. New counsel has not appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. Hare did not file an amended complaint deleting the class references. Therefore, the case will be dismissed without prejudice.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the case is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE and without costs to any party.
